Re: S & L Vitamins, Inc. v. Australian Gold, Inc.
05 CV 01217 (JS)(MLO)

Magistrate Orenstein:

We represent defendant, Australian Gold, Inc., in the above-referenced action. Yesterday, July 12, 2005, a representative from your Court, Ms. Linda Johnston, contacted me regarding Australian Gold, Inc.'s application for pro hac vice admission of Michael Wukmer, Esq. and Scott Matthews, Esq. in the above-referenced matter.[1] Ms. Johnston advised me that the Certificates of Good Standing filed for Messrs. Wukmer and Matthews were inadequate for our pro hac vice application because the certificates were more than thirty days old when filed. Further, Mr. Johnston recommended that we e-file updated Certificates of Good Standing to remedy this issue. Accordingly, attached hereto are updated Certificates of Good Standing for Messrs. Wukmer and Matthews.

We are available at the Court's convenience if the Court has any questions or comments concerning this application.

Respectfully,

Francis J. Earley
